Hi Linda & Bob & Sheryl,

Just wanted to pass this along in case it is deemed to be responsive to the PRA. While it was not sent prior to the closed session, it does affirm verbal reports I received from West County residents regarding potential for litigation.

Best,

Lynda Hopkins

Here are my comments to the PD article on the conflict. Thank you Lynda for sticking up for rural Sonoma County. It is much appreciated.

If anyone is interested, I pledged five grand to fight the Rohnert Park redistricting map. That is, the only map the unknown persons on the non-elected Advisory Committee forwarded. The one map! That is I pledged this legal fee to protect the rural life style build up over fifty years. Don't forget that UBG's and Open Space and Ag have gone to the vote. People voted for this lifestyle. They voted to tax themselves to preserve rural Sonoma County. They voted for you the Supervisors to assume this mantle not a small minded Committee. Thank you again Supervisor Hopkins.

Here are my comments to the PD: Well, I guess the downtown County Admin building is totally gone This will save the County a bundle. How could anyone imagine cooperation on a fifty million dollar project between Santa Rosa City Council and between County Supervisors if they cant agree on something that should be benign like Redistricting. R.I.P County Admin building in Santa Rosa.

I intend to follow up and ensure that the tax payers aren't reemed because of this misplaced idea of somehow fixing Santa Rosa's past mistakes with a big County building that we rural residents will prop up at our expense. No thank you.
Sincerely,
Ernie Carpenter
